

HUNGARIAN FILM DAYS AT CSU MAGYAR FILMNAPOK A CSU-N

Bocskai Rádió
Az Észak-Amerikai Magyarok Hangja

March 13th Friday & 14th Saturday, 2015

March 13th Friday, Room MC 134

March 14th Saturday, Room MC 136

1:00-1:30 Introduction

9:30-10:00 Introduction

1:30-3:15 White palms/ Fehér tenyér

Dir. Szabolcs Hajdu (2006)

Having suffered as a boy under a brutal Communist-era coach, champion Hungarian gymnast moves to Canada years later in search of a new start.

3:15-3:45 Discussion, refreshments

3:45-5:30 Delta

Dir. Kornél Mundruczó (2008)

Mihail returns to his mother's village after years to discover he has a grown half-sister. When Mihail moves to an island that once belonged to his family, Fauna tags along, eager to escape her brutish father. What should be an idyllic existence is disrupted by the small minds of villagers.

5:30-6:30 Discussion, refreshments

10:00-11:30 Son of the White Mare/ Fehérlófia

Dir. Marcell Jankovics (1981)

This animated film is based on ancient Hunnic and Avaric legends. The story's main character is Son of the White Mare who is a man with superhuman power.

11:30-12:00 Discussion, refreshments

12:00-1:45 Samba/ Szamba

Dir. Róbert Koltai (1996)

Otto Szamba Sr. organizes a community theatre group, which all the children of the town embrace. All except Otto Jr., who is ashamed of his father's tendency to overact on stage and in real life. Along with the theme of generational difference, the conflict of communism vs. capitalism is also predominant in this delightful comic drama.

1:45-2:30 Discussion, refreshments